

PLG Pulse

Expanding Our Global Reach. Our Purpose at Your Service

At ProductLife Group, expanding is not just about scale – it's about amplifying our ability to serve clients, foster innovation, and make a positive impact on patients and society.

As we continue to expand our footprint to support clients across the world, we remain deeply committed to connecting you with our innovation, compliance and sustainability services.

Because our purpose reaches your purpose.

This edition of our newsletter - PLG Pulse - celebrates the milestones that mark our global journey, from new regional hubs in Japan and North Africa, to the progress achieved in our CSR commitments, and the thought leadership our teams bring to the life sciences community worldwide.

Global Expansion: Opening New Markets for our Clients

In 2025, ProductLife Group has taken two major steps in its international journey.

PLG Japan — Our J-APAC hub

Our new office in Tokyo marks the launch of our J-APAC hub, reinforcing our presence in Asia and our ability to serve clients across Japan and the Pacific region with local expertise and global standards.

Together, these milestones embody PLG's vision: a global network united by shared values, expertise and commitment to shaping the future of life sciences.

Leadership & People: Strengthening Our Expertise in Life Science

PLG continues its global expansion with the appointment of Valérie Vézinhet as Chief People Officer, joining the Executive Committee to strengthen people leadership, enhance employee experience, and support sustainable growth. Her addition underscores PLG's ongoing commitment to investing in its people, governance, and operational excellence worldwide.
